Fellowship applications are due at KHS by March 15, 2013. Grantees will be notified by May 15. Grantees may be required to provide their Social Security numbers for tax purposes. Because of state regulations, Kentucky state employees are not eligible for these fellowships. (Kentucky public school teachers and state university employees are eligible, however.)

Applications should be mailed to Elizabeth J. Van Allen, Kentucky Historical Society, 100 West Broadway, Frankfort, KY 40601-1931. If you have any questions, please contact him at beth.vanallen@ky.gov or 502-564-1792, ext. 4440.

Applicants must submit a curriculum vitae or resume and prospectus. Your prospectus should describe your current project and its significance, emphasizing how it would benefit from research at KHS. Include a project overview, theoretical perspectives, sources, methods, work completed to date, necessity of KHS collections research, significance, bibliography.

In this description make sure to cover the following points:
• What is the end product of your project?
• What KHS collections or resources will aid you?
• How will these resources contribute to your project?
• What assets necessary to your project are not at KHS?
• How much time do you intend to spend at KHS?
• What is the estimated timetable for your project?

Graduate students must include two letters of recommendation from faculty members familiar with the student's work and with the project being proposed. Independent scholars who do not have a curriculum vitae should provide a statement about their experience with historical research and publishing.

Applicants are strongly encouraged to contact the KHS Director of Special Collections and Library, Louise Jones (louise.jones@ky.gov or 502-564-1792, ext. 4407) well in advance to help orient them to KHS collections.
